3 June 1964

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Assistant Director, OSA

25X1A

SUBJECT: [REDACTED]
(Third Security Violation)

REFERENCES: A. OSA-0867-64 Dated 2 April 1964
B. OSA-1749-64 Dated 12 May 1964

1. This memorandum contains recommendations for your approval and action in paragraph 4.

2. As you know by reference B., I recommended a course of action to be taken to effect a penalty upon [REDACTED] for the latter's three security violations within the period 27 August 1963 - 28 February 1964. I recommended that you assign [REDACTED] to the Saturday duty in OSA for two consecutive weeks, that you orally reprimand [REDACTED] in a private meeting in the near future, and that a letter of reprimand be forwarded for the signature of the DD/S&T which would have the effect of a written reprimand. You concurred in the proposal on 19 May, and since that time, the letter intended for the DD/S&T's signature has been with [REDACTED]

3. Today I saw [REDACTED] on the subject, and he advised that, in his opinion, the staff work on this case was quite proper; but that, as a matter of DD/S&T policy, he would prefer to have the letter of reprimand signed by the Assistant Director, OSA.

25X1A

4. It is now recommended that you administer the oral reprimand and effect the assignment of Saturday duty for [REDACTED] as previously agreed. In addition,
